To the FREE ELECTORS of the CITY of DUBLIN.
GENTLEMEN,

BY your unparalleled Virtues, You have been able to frustrate all the Impious Attempts of your Enemies to overturn your SACRED RIGHTS and LIBERTIES. I bless Providence and sincerely thank You for the Honor You have done me, in the extraordinary Confidence You have reposed in me. I can only assure You, that I gladly devote myself intirely to your Service, and shall never know any Masters but You in the discharge of the Great and Important Trust You have honored me with. Time and Circumstances will not permit me to say more at present than to assure you, that Your Interest and Honour shall be my chief Care, and that your Instructions shall be ever religiously observed and attended to, by,

Gentlemen,
Your ever faithful, much obliged,
And most entirely devoted Servant,
C. LUCAS.
